Why We are a new approach to RUN MULTIPLE ADVERTISING PLANS & GRANULAR TARGETING - Alternate advertising plans & strike different sections of marketing to broaden your reach and shorten vacancy times.

Why it's important to have a talented team

Save Time

Marketing today is extremely complicated and time-consuming. Since you're busy running your business, it's key to have a team of digital marketing specialists dedicated to your success

Save Money

Hiring a skilled in-house digital marketing team can be extremely expensive. With Marketing 360®, you get a highly talented and dedicated team at a fraction of the cost

Stay Ahead

Marketing is changing at a rapid pace. Your dedicated team helps you stay ahead of the curve and the competition

Achieve marketing success

Marketing is always changing and evolving. Partner with a dedicated Marketing Success Manager who works as hard as you do to help you stay ahead of the curve. They focus on creating and executing modern digital marketing strategies to help you grow your business.

Win with content marketing

If you don't invest in organic growth, you'll always be a hamster on a wheel with a high cost per acquisition and low ROI. Our content marketing and SEO program will help you steadily grow your brand's organic awareness and results from search, social, email, SEO and beyond.

Grow with multi-channel ads

If you're not promoting your brand across today's most popular digital channels, you're losing sales to your competitors. Our multi-channel advertising program will help you regain those sales by running eye-catching ads for your brand across search, social, display and beyond.

Stand out on social media

Smart marketing is about being where your customers are, and they're on social media! If you don't have a presence on social media, you're losing market share and sales to your competitors. Our social media management program will help you fix that.

Build a professional brand

Whether you need professional design work, videos, photography, business cards, logos, tradeshow displays, you name it, we have you covered. Simply assign a creative todo through the platform to have a talented professional create it for you on-demand!

Igniting Your Growth With ArsenWeb's Artifes

Leverage ArsenWeb's Artifes's marketing solutions to grow your Addiction Treatment Center's patient base.

SEO

1 million Google/Bing/Yahoo searches occur for Drug Rehab each year in the U.S. In addition, nearly half a million Google/Bing/Yahoo searches occur yearly for Addiction Treatment.

SEO for your Addiction Treatment center will help your facility be found online. Artifes's strategic approach to search engine optimization will grow your website's search rankings for targeted keywords and markets. We also focus on conversion optimization, which means we don't just work to drive traffic to your site, but convert leads.

Paid Search

Google AdWords and other paid search programs puts your ads top of page for people searching online for what you do.

With bid prices starting as low as only a few dollars per click, Paid Search can often be a very cost effective way to drive leads.

Our ad strategy includes conversion optimization, custom landing pages if need, and graphic ads. Geo-modifiers are used to control who sees your PPC ad in order to most cost effectively manage your budget.

Social Advertising

ArsenWeb's Artifes offers award winning social media management.

Paid social allows you to advertise your drug rehab or addiction treatment center on platforms such as Facebook.

Ads can be set-up to target users based on details such as location, age, interests, and more. Think of a Social Ad as a digital billboard displaying to your target audience online.

Web Design

Drug abuse and addiction is a rising epidemic. It's estimated that the rate of people who die everyday from a drug overdose has tripled in the past 20 years.

Your treatment center is saving lives, and having an optimized web site is essential to being found online. At ArsenWeb's Artifes we're experienced with designing custom websites for the healthcare industry.

Reputation Management

When it comes to selecting a treatment program, many people rely on online reviews to determine what place will be the best fit for them.

Its important patrons and their loved ones trust you and are confident in the quality treatment program you provide.
